Employees buy Nesco plant

Through cooperative efforts by the employees, the state, Madison County, two local banks and the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, the management and employees of Nesco Steel Barrel Co. have successfully purchased the plant, it was announced Friday.

The former Reliable-Nesco plant at 1801 Benton St., will officially become the new Nesco Steel Barrel Company with a grand opening Dec. 6.

EARLY THIS year, the parent company, Plant Industries of Hasbrouk Heights, N.J., notified the plant that it going to be sold and would probably close.

Employees were given first option to purchase the plant. Al Zamarione, then controller for the company, started exploring possible funding sources. The Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce went to work to assist the employees in arranging financing. Two local banks agreed to participate and the employees themselves were asked to buy a part of the stock.

The Madison County Community Development office was asked to assist and county officials, along with Chamber officials met with representatives of the Department of Commerce and Community Affairs (DCCA), to begin the application process for a low-interest loan from the Fixed Rate Financing Fund Reserve Account, funds originally appropriated for use in the Community Service Block Grant Program.

SUCH FUNDING had never been used to assist an employee buyout of a plant before, but state officials were persuaded that the salvation of a plant employing approximately 42 people came within the scope of the intent of "The Fund," as it became known.

The result was a $150,000 loan over seven years at 3 percent interest, which made the employee buyout possible.

Credited with helping the company arrange the state grant are Aaron Ridenour, economic development coordinator for Madison County, and James Pennekamp, executive vice president of the Chamber. Financial institutions providing local funding are First Granite City National Bank and Madison County Federal Savings and Loan.

Had the buyout not been arranged, management believes the plant may have been sold to a Fenton, Mo., barrel company which planned to close it down, keep the plant and property, sell the equipment and machinery and eliminate the competition from the Granite City plant, the only other barrel plant in the Midwest.

"PARTICIPANTS in this project should be complimented for their faith in the future of Nesco and their commitment to a sound economic base within the Tri-Cities area," Pennekamp noted in a recent Chamber Newsletter.

Pennekamp also congratulated Zamarione, the new president of Nesco, "for recognizing that the plant could return to profitability by eliminating the expense of corporate overhead, and through employee ownership, which is an immediate incentive for increased productivity."

Rev. Terry Shea dies on Saturday

The Rev. Robert Terry Shea, 63, pastor of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church, died at 12:05 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 24, 1984, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

The priest suffered a stroke while teaching a class Feb. 20 at the church. After his medical condition was diagnosed to be the result of a brain tumor, he was transferred to Firmin Desloge—St. Louis University Hospitals, where he underwent surgery Feb. 23.

Rev. Shea had been in poor health since that time, but his spirits remained high and his hospital room was filled with greetings from many St. Louis Cardinal baseball players, parishoners and other friends, including former Commissioner of Baseball Bowie Kuhn.

An avid fan of the St. Louis Baseball Cardinals, who attended as many games as possible each season, the local priest was frequently mentioned during his illness the past summer by KMOX radio announcers Jack Buck and Mike Shannon in their broadcasts of the Cardinal baseball games.

Appointed pastor of St. Margaret Mary in 1960, Rev. Shea came here from St. Michael's Catholic Church in Staunton. He also served as pastor of St. Mark Catholic Church in Venice from 1967 until 1972.

He was born in Decatur, a son of the late Louis M. and Teresa (Evans) Shea, and graduated from St. Theresa High School there in 1939.

He attended Springfield Junior College for two years and spent one year at the University of Illinois prior to entering Kenrick Seminary in St. Louis.

Rev. Shea was ordained into the priesthood March 28, 1948, by Bishop James A. Griffin at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Springfield.

He served as assistant pastor at St. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Alton from 1948 to 1950 and was assistant pastor from 1950 until 1952 at St. Mary Catholic Church at Paris, Ill.

He was appointed assistant pastor at St. Peter and Paul Catholic Church from 1958 until 1962 when he was named assistant priest at St. Francis Xavier Church in Jerseyville in 1958.

Rev. Shea's first appointment as pastor was in 1960 at St. Barbara Catholic Church in Witt, Ill., where he remained until taking over as pastor at St. Mark's Church in Venice in 1967.

In 1972, he returned as pastor to St. Francis Xavier Church in Jerseyville and was pastor of St. Ambrose Catholic Church in Godfrey from 1974 to 1979.

REV. R. TERRY SHEA

He spent one year as pastor of St. Michael Catholic Church in Staunton prior to his appointment in 1980 to St. Margaret Mary Church here.

Rev. Shea became a Cardinal fan when growing up in Decatur. He had almost instant recall of some of the St. Louis team's finer seasons in 1946, 1947, 1964, 1968 and when he followed his team to Milwaukee to see the 1982 World Series.

Even in years without a league championship, or pennant race or even a potential series title, the priest followed the Cardinals. It made no difference if they were in the cellar of their division or on top of the standings, he would state.

The team that played in the 1940s—with players like Stan Musial, Enos Slaughter and Terry Moore—was the best, in the priest's opinion. However, the 1982 edition of the Cards reminded Rev. Shea of the '40s team, he commented during a Press-Record interview in October 1982.

Rev. Shea believed that sports are a necessity of life and growing up, and he encouraged every child who can to play sports, but without the emphasis on winning, without uniforms and without coaches.

"One thing sports does is give people unity. We don't all work in the same place or go to the same school, but in sports, everybody can be at the same place," he said in the interview.

Rev. Shea is survived by four brothers, a sister and a host of friends.

His remains will lie in state Tuesday at St. Ambrose Catholic Church in Godfrey and Wednesday at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Granite City. Masses will be conducted Wednesday and Thursday in the respective churches. Times and other details may be found in today's obituary column.

IN TIME FOR CHRISTMAS. The Game of Granite City, designed for the entire family to enjoy, has arrived and is available for sale in this area prior to the holiday season. A fund-raising project of the Gateway Business and Professional Women's Club, the proceeds will aid several charitable programs sponsored by the club. Displaying the product are, from the left, Barbara Hodges, club president, Dee Hoover, and Donna Kimbro, treasurer of the organization. Those who placed advance orders for the games may pick them up at Mrs. Hoover's place of business, 2213 Washington Ave., Mondays through Fridays from 6 to 9 p.m., and Saturdays and Sundays from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Games will also be sold at other Granite City locations.

Game of Granite City arrives

The Game of Granite City, offered for sale under the auspices of the Gateway Business and Professional Women's Club to area residents, has arrived and may be purchased at several locations.

Those people who ordered games in advance will be able to pick up their game or games at Dee's Brand Craft and Gift Store, located at 2213 Washington Ave., Monday through Friday from 6 to 9 p.m., and on Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

AREA RESIDENTS interested in purchasing the limited editions may buy the game, which is similar to the game of Monopoly, at Schermer's Men's Store, 10 Crossroads Plaza Shopping Center, Consiglio's Jewelry, 3717e Nameoki Road.

The games will be sold for $10.95 and all proceeds from the fund-raising project will be used for scholarships, aid to Hospice of Madison County, Parents Plus and Alpha House, according to Mrs. Barbara Hodges, club president.

A unique bit of Granite City which may become a collector's item in years to come, the games have only Granite City merchants and professional people on the board, as well as the current members of the Board of Education, Park District, and City Council of Granite City.

Library buys land for future branch

By GARY SCHNEIDER

"It has been a particularly busy time," Robert Stack, librarian for the Granite City libraries, noted as he discussed plans for opening the branch library in temporary facilities and the purchase of property for the possible building of a new branch library.

Property at 2145 Johnson Road, two doors from Paddlers' Swim Club, has been purchased by the library in hopes a new branch can be constructed there. Some thought is being given to selling the house on the site, which can be moved to another location.

ADDITIONAL FUNDING will be required for the construction of a new building for the branch library. "We do have a building fund, but there is not enough money to build what we hope to build. We will probably have to do some kind of a fundraiser," Stack said.

Property the library owns at the end of Westchester Drive and Wabash Avenue will be sold in the near future and the money raised probably will go to the building project. The library board originally had hoped to build a branch on the Westchester property, but dropped the idea when there were objections from some neighbors.

No price has yet been set by the board on the Westchester property. The board will be asked soon to consider setting a price.

ALSO IN THE works at the main library is a new elevator-like lift to make the building accessible to the handicapped. At the last library board meeting, the board hired R.W. Becker of Hamel to install the lift.

State approval of the final plans is required and all necessary documents now are in the hands of the state library officials, Stack said. He expects immediate approval under state guidelines, which require speedy approval and construction.

Reviews ordered for disability denials

At least 23,000 Illinois residents who had their Social Security disability benefits terminated after May 1, 1981, by Health and Human Services Secretary Margaret Heckler may seek reinstatement, Illinois Attorney General Neil F. Hartigan has announced.

Hartigan made the announcement in response to a U.S. District Court ruling Nov. 16 in favor of a lawsuit brought by the Health Assistance Foundation challenging wrongful action taken by Mrs. Heckler.

THE ILLINOIS Attorney General intervened in the court case because it was alleged Mrs. Heckler violated the federal Social Security Act by terminating thousands of beneficiaries without a showing that they had improved medically. The lawsuit alleged the administration's policy violated the due process clause of the U.S. Constitution.

"We are very pleased with the decision because thousands of Illinois residents will be eligible to receive back benefits," Hartigan said. "No longer will an individual be forced to re-improve a continued

Annuitants to honor Plant renovation to begin soon

Rep. Sam Wolf as legislator of year

The State Universities Annuitants' Association has chosen State Rep. Sam W. Wolf of Granite City for the Marcy G. Bodine Award as its "legislator of the year."

The state association has asked the Mylan Snyers Chapter at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville to present the award at a general membership meeting Monday, Dec. 10, at 1:30 p.m. in the Oak Room of the SIUE University Center.

James G. Bridwell, chapter president, made the announcement.

Rep. Wolf was re-elected to the Illinois General Assembly Nov. 6.

The Metro-East Sanitary District Board has accepted a bid to renovate the Lansdowne Sewage Treatment Plant and expects the work to begin within two to three weeks.

According to MESD Executive Director Walter "Shang" Greathouse, the lowest of three bids was $62,000 from Ace Pipe Cleaning, Inc., of Kansas City, Mo. Greathouse says the bid price is "in line with what we expected." The board had predicted the needed renovations would cost approximately $70,000.

The company also was recommended by consulting engineers Hurst-Rosche Engineers, Inc., of East St. Louis.

Once the paperwork is completed, Greathouse said, the company has 60 days to perform the work, meaning that the project should be completed in late January or early February.

Greathouse says he has relayed information to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the Illinois EPA informing the agencies that the board has accepted a bid for the plant renovation.

The EPA ordered the MESD last May to clean, repair and maintain certain parts and equipment of its two sewage treatment facilities after an engineer's report indicated that some parts need replacing, equipment needed cleaning and maintenance efforts needed to be improved.

The EPA also noted that failure to properly maintain the plants could result in "poor plant performance" and "operator indifference."

The Lansdowne plant serves MESD customers in Madison, Venice, Brooklyn, National City, Washington Park, Caseyville, Fairmont City, East St. Louis and Stites and Canteen townships.

In other action Tuesday, the board appointed Greathouse as the district's executive director. The action was taken in relation to a statute passed by the legislature last September. That law allows the board to appoint an executive director and to set his salary.

Greathouse told the Press-Record that the new law grants him greater authority in making decisions for the district, including the sale of district property.

Greathouse said the board probably will set his salary at the first of next year.

VANDALS DAMAGE HOUSE

Suni Bassett, 1729 Delmar Ave., reported that vacant rental property at 1727 Delma Ave., was vandalized last week. Glass was broken, room dividers and papers were torn and the intruders also threw food around the dwelling, reports said.

Charles Yerber and Christian Brewer

Granite City residents are DeMolay initiates

Christian D. Brewer and Charles J. Yerber Jr. became DeMolays in James Stuart Chapter in Bloomington, Ill., during the weekend. They were among 12 from chapters throughout the state who received their initiatory and DeMolay degrees at the Scottish Rite Cathedral.

The initiatory degree was conferred by the Illinois DeMolay state officers with Jimmy K. Stuart as state junior counselor. The DeMolay degree was by the Tinley Park Chapter degree team.

Perkins of Belleville, Deputy Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Illinois, Illinois DeMolays, advisors and candidates were luncheon and banquet guests of the Scottish Rite of Bloomington.

Also in attendance from the local chapter were: Eddie Bodman, Glen Goodman, Phillip Cruise, Jay Hahn, Terry Perrin, Jason Glasco, "Dad" B. Edward Bodman, "Dad" Charles Meyer and Ms. Jo Meyer, "Dad" Jimmy E. Stuart, executive administrator for DeMolay Association of Southern Illinois and Mrs. Mary Stuart, administrator of Mothers Clubs of Illinois DeMolay.

On Sunday, the chapter members, their families and advisors attended the 10:40 service at Calvary Baptist Church, 3600 Washington Ave., where Matt Cotter, master counselor, is a member.

Regional plant grant increased by IEPA

In a letter written to the city council, Granite City aldermen were informed by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (IEPA), of an increase in the grant for upgrading the wastewater treatment plant to become a regional facility.

According to the communication, the grant has been increased by $7,500, making the total grant $254,000 for the project.

ASKS INDUSTRIAL ZONING

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals will conduct an on-site public zoning hearing at 10:35 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 29, at 1936 Third St., East Madison, where Brian Vocum is requesting rezoning of a tract of land from R-3 single family residential to M-3 heavy industrial zoning. The board then will make its recommendation for consideration by the Madison County Board at its December meeting.

THE LAW AND YOU

BY RICK REED
Attorney At Law

Couples who are experiencing marital problems frequently come to this office wondering whether they should pursue a legal separation or a divorce. It has been the experience of this writer that most individuals are not aware of the differences between these two different courses of action. The major distinction between a legal separation and a divorce is that with a legal separation you are still married after the matter is concluded. With a divorce, of course, the marriage is ended.

There are several reasons why a husband and wife may want to pursue a legal separation as opposed to a divorce. Many couples wish to live, separate and apart, and yet they still feel they may be able to reconcile later. Others do not want to divorce for religious reasons. Recently a couple came to this writer's office who had been legally separated for thirty-three years. They had never divorced because of their religion.

Another important reason why a husband and wife may wish to pursue a legal separation is for insurance reasons. Frequently, the wife is carried as a dependent on her husband's health and accident insurance through his work. Most policies will not allow her to continue to be covered if the marriage is ended. If the wife has a pre-existing health condition or if she is facing substantial medical costs in the near future, she may not want to lose the coverage. In these cases, it would be impossible for her to pick up other health insurance on her own with these existing medical problems.

A few years ago, a woman came to this office indicating that her husband was making her life intolerable. She wanted to obtain a divorce, but she was scheduled for major surgery which would require a substantial period of rehabilitation. She was carried on her husband's medical insurance through his work, and she needed the coverage to pay the bills which were about to be incurred.

It was suggested that she pursue a legal separation in this instance. She inquired whether she could merely informally separate without benefit of a Court order. She certainly could have done this, but it was explained to her that only with a formal Court order pursuant to a legal separation could she be guaranteed the necessary child support. She further needed an order of Court to assure that he would not drop her as a dependent on his health insurance.

HOUSE FIRE THIS MORNING. Madison volunteer firefighters feed hose through the front door of the Ed Griffith home, 2537 North St., early this morning as the firefighter at left puts on an air mask and tank before entering the burning dwelling. Believed to have started in the furnace room located in the basement, the fire caused an estimated $25,000 damage to the $55,000 frame house. No one was injured in the blaze, which was reported at 11:30 Sunday night.

Traffic relief denied for Emert Ave.

Granite City aldermen turned down an ordinance last week which would have prohibited traffic traveling on Maryville Road from making a left-hand turn onto Emert Avenue.

The proposal met with opposition, by aldermen who said the law would just turn the flow of traffic down other side roads in the area. They said they feel the ordinance would not solve the problem, just move it.

Alderman Woodrow "Woody" Moad, who introduced the ordinance, answered by saying, "If we need to put a no left-hand turn sign on Gary (Avenue) and Kilarney (Drive), then we need to," he said. "We need to get the cars back on the main arteries."

Alderman Paul Fisk, admitted there was a problem on Emert Avenue, but he pointed out that it might be better solved by the installation of sidewalks there.

Moad agreed and added that he brought the ordinance in, only to help protect the safety of the residents. "There are a lot of children on that street, there are no sidewalks—that road was originally meant to dead-end," he said.

The ordinance was defeated by an 8 to 6 vote. Those voting in favor of the ordinance were aldermen: Moad, Fred "Pat" Schuman, Carl Kiteel, Sharon Perjak, Jake Varadian and Lloyd Bailey.

Those voting against the ordinance were Aldermen Everett Morien, Casmer Skubish, Sam Whitmer, Fisk, Phillip Miller, Stephen Saltich, Michael Modrusic and Paul Ray Bowler.

Computer and stereo among burglary loot

A burglary at the home of Dana Moore, 2048 Pontoon Road, reported at 10:15 p.m. Friday, netted the intruder several valuable items, with an estimated value in excess of $6,200.

Among the missing property were an Apple computer with a printer and monitor, worth $2,200, a stereo system, including a cassette deck, turntable, equalizer and two speakers, valued at $1,900 and a video recorder worth $300.

Also a quantity of coins worth $1,500, jewelry pieces, a stoneware containing assorted items, a 19-inch color television valued at $300 and an assortment of gifts purchased for Christmas, the owner said.

THREE INJURED IN CRASH ON MCCAMBRIDGE VIADUCT

Three persons were injured at 2 a.m. Sunday, when two cars collided on Route 203 at the McCambridge viaduct.

The driver of the first vehicle, Edmundo L. Mendoza, 23, of 2139 Grand Ave., and his passenger, Lisa Costello, 19, of Fairmont City, both received minor injuries.

The driver of the second vehicle, a pickup truck, was Walter A. Norton, 39, of 12 Reta Court. He was injured, but state authorities said he was not treated at the scene.

Norton's truck was northbound in the right lane on the viaduct, when his car struck the guardrail and skidded into Mendoza's car, which also was also northbound. Then Mendoza's two-door Chevrolet, struck the rear of Norton's truck.

Norton was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol and improper lane usage.

Seminar to discuss warehouse operations

A seminar to help warehouse managers increase productivity and use resources more efficiently will be offered Thursday and Friday, Nov. 29 and 30, at St. Louis.

Seminar participants will be shown ways to set personnel performance standards, select the best of handling and storage equipment, use warehouse space more effectively, and develop other efficiency techniques.

John C. Spain, a principal with the warehouse and distribution consulting firm Tompkins Associates, Inc., will be the seminar leader.

The seminar is sponsored by the Center for Management Studies at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The two-day program will meet from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at Henry VIII Inn and Lodge, 4690 North Lindbergh Blvd.

Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis. For more information or to make a reservation, interested persons may call the Center for Management Studies at 1-602-2668.

need for disability every three years.

"This unwarranted action by Mrs. Heckler caused severe economic hardship for thousands of disabled persons. It's difficult to believe, but these people who suffer from heart disease, spinal bifida and other serious ailments actually lost their valuable medical benefits. Not only did they receive less money from the government, but they also had to pay considerably more from their own pockets for medical expenses or they had to do without treatment."

"AS A RESULT of the judge's ruling, these people now will have the opportunity to regain a semblance of financial stability."

Hartigan also pointed out that the terminations actually cost the state money. Many of the persons cut from Social Security—which is 100 percent federally funded—were forced to take General Assistance or Aid to Dependent Children—which are financed by the state.

In ruling in favor of the Legal Assistance Foundation and Attorney General Hartigan case known as Young and Hartigan vs. Heckler, Judge William Beatty of the Southern District of Illinois ordered the Social Security Administration to notify terminated recipients by Jan. 15 that they can have their cases reviewed.

THE ATTORNEY General urged terminated recipients to ask Social Security that their cases be reviewed immediately and their benefits reinstated so they can begin receiving benefits again as soon as possible.

Hartigan, the only attorney general in the United States to create a Disabled Persons Advocacy Division, was the first Attorney General in the nation to intervene in this Social Security case. Following Hartigan's lead, attorneys general in at least two states filed similar lawsuits.

Information Day for veterans set

VOICES (Veterans Outreach Investment Counseling and Educational Services) and the SUIE Office of Veterans Affairs are co-sponsoring a Veterans Information Day to be held at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville on Thursday, Nov. 29, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Cahokia-Kaskaskia rooms in the basement of the University Center.

The program at SUIE is designed to allow veterans the opportunity to meet with most of the agencies that provide services to the veteran, to include the VA, DAV, VVLP, DVA, VAC and others.

Those seeking employment are to complete an "intake"—job developers will be available.

In addition, VOICES asks veterans and their families to join in a social evening from 5 to 10 at the Edwardsville American Legion, located on Rt. 157 across from Edwardsville High School.

Street collapse gobbles up truck

Turkey gobblers were not the only things gobbled up in Granite City on Thanksgiving Day.

As Robert W. Miller, 49, of 2905 Marshall Ave. drove his truck south on Marshall and into the intersection with Faith Avenue at 6:35 a.m. Thursday, the pavement collapsed and consumed the front end of the vehicle.

Miller, escaped apparent injury and a tow truck removed his ranch-type truck from the caved-in area of the street.

A water main leak is thought to have caused the collapse, and police alerted the street department and the Illinois-American Water Co.

CAR STOLEN IN VENICE
Mary Young of 55 Venice Homes, Venice, told police at 10:45 p.m. Wednesday that someone took her 1980 Oldsmobile. Her car was parked at 413 Weaver St., at the time of the incident. She also noted that her purse was under the front seat of the car.

Breakthrough in surgery to cure prostate cancer

The thought of having prostate cancer is a traumatic one for most men. Surgical treatment to remove the cancerous prostate has been available for 80 years, but the "cure" can be as traumatic as the disease itself because removal of the prostate often leaves men impotent.

Today, a revolutionary new operation here can remove the diseased prostate gland while leaving surrounding nerves intact, thereby preserving male potency in more than 80 percent of patients with localized cancer, and appears to be equally as effective as the old procedure in preventing recurrences.

The surgery is so new to the treatment of prostate cancer that only two surgeons in the U.S. have had a large experience with the technique — Dr. Patrick Walsh of Johns Hopkins in Maryland, who developed the procedure, and Dr. William Catalona, urologist-in-chief at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis and head of the division at Washington University School of Medicine.

The prostate is a small, genital gland located between the bladder and the urethra.

The number of new cases of prostate cancer diagnosed in 1984 will total nearly 76,000, of which 30 percent of patients will experience problems and to percent will die. As in most forms of cancer, early detection increases the chance of cure or survival.

The chance of getting prostate cancer increases with age. It generally strikes men over 55 and is the third leading cause of cancer deaths in men aged 55 to 74, following lung cancer and cancer of the colon-rectum; it is the second leading cause of cancer deaths in men over age 60.

"Some men have no symptoms and never know that they have it," Dr. Catalona said. The incidence of prostate cancer is considerably higher among black men than white. The disease also seems to occur more frequently among married men than among those who are single.

Surgical removal of the prostate, total prostatectomy, is often the method of treatment to prevent recurrence.

Since the prostate is situated between the bladder and the urethra, it is difficult to remove without damaging these two organs. To preserve these organs, surgeons found it necessary to cut nerves surrounding the prostate in order to remove it. The severing of these nerves causes impotence.

The new surgical procedure perfected by Drs. Walsh and Catalona removes the prostate without cutting any vital nerves. Once the prostate is removed, the bladder is connected to the urethra, with all normal bodily functions intact.

Dr. Catalona said that although the procedure is fairly new, he predicts it will be the standard procedure in only a few years.

"Surgeons who deal with cancer have begun to refuse surgical techniques to be as effective as older procedures but to remove only the necessary tissues," he said.

"We are now taking only what we need and leaving behind everything else. Surgeons can do a more extensive operation but the patient pays the price in terms of sacrifice of normal functions."

Patients have been referred from around the U.S. to Barnes for the procedure. Hospitalization averages up to three weeks.

Men with more advanced stages of the disease — where the cancer has spread into adjacent tissue — may be treated with a combination of surgery, radiation, chemotherapy or injections of female hormones to suppress the manufacture of the male hormone, testosterone, which stimulates the growth of prostate cancer.

There are risks with the latter treatment. According to Dr. Catalona, two-thirds of the men who receive the hormone therapy will become impotent. "It is not unusual for people who have been receiving hormone therapy to go into remission but then to suffer a relapse years later," he added.

Crackdown in this area on reporting cash transactions

A provision of the Tax Reform Act of 1984 has added more "teeth" to cash reporting requirements. As of Jan. 1, every business person — whether a lawyer, yacht broker, banker, jeweler, car dealer or real estate agent — will have to tell the Internal Revenue Service, which customers pay their bills with more than $10,000 currency.

There has been a crackdown in this region of Illinois on related requirements already in effect.

A Springfield bank has pleaded guilty to willfully failing to file currency transaction reports with Internal Revenue. The Illinois National Bank was charged under Title 31 of the United States Code which, among other provisions, requires banks to report to the IRS any individual cash transaction involving more than $10,000 in currency, whether withdrawn or deposited.

The Springfield case is being cited as an example of increased IRS efforts nationwide to insure compliance.

Another area case involved the First National Bank and Trust Co. of Galesburg which pleaded guilty in early 1984 to failing to record a $12,500 deposit. An individual bank official was indicted for failing to file reporting forms on cash transactions involving $345,119.

These requirements have been in effect since 1970 and were passed by Congress to assist in the investigations of illegal activities, such as organized crime, drug trafficking and tax evasion.

"Since the principal motive for most crime is monetary gain, these reporting requirements generate a great amount of data useful to federal law enforcement agencies. The reporting requirements also create opportunities to prosecute or penalize criminals for attempting to evade them," IRS District Director Ira S. Loeb commented.

Contract awarded for sewer break material

Granite City aldermen awarded a contract last week for sewer break repair materials, to St. Louis Slag Products Company, Inc.

St. Louis Slag was the only bidder, but the contract was awarded to them regardless, because of the urgency of the situation. According to Acting City Engineer Ed Schulze, the material is needed immediately to continue repairs on the present sewer breaks.

The prices of the fill materials are as follows: 16-inch aggregate—$6 a ton; 1-inch aggregate—$4 a ton, and 11-2-inch aggregate—$4 a ton.

ARREST PASSENGER WHO CAN'T PAY FARE
A Checker Cab driver drove his passenger to police headquarters last week when the man reported, having no money to pay the fare after calling the cab and getting into the vehicle on Dawn Avenue.

Robert E. Lawson, 21, who listed no address, was charged with theft in a complaint signed by the driver, who alleged the man told him to drive to the police station as he didn't have the money to pay. The fare to police headquarters was $2.85.

Lawson appeared in court at 4 p.m. Monday and pleaded guilty. He was fined $100 and was released to pay later.

WOMAN IS STRUCK

When an argument escalated into a fight, Janet Womack, 3105 Kirkpatrick Homes, last week reported being struck in the face and body by a former male friend. She also was pulled to the floor by her hair and a child, who came to aid her, also was struck, she told officers.

WARRANT IS SERVED

Carl L. Clark, 30, of 2906 Myrtle Ave., was arrested there last week on an active warrant alleging failure to appear in court on a charge of driving with a suspended license. He was released upon posting a $152 cash bond.

Obituaries

Maude Bohnenstiel

Maude (Hicks) Bohnenstiel, 94, of 2815 Jerden Ave., died at 5 a.m. today, November 26, 1984, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center. She had been ill several years and in the hospital 10 days.

Born in Berryman, Mo., she was a resident of Granite City the past 60 years. She was a former employee of Granite City Steel, where she worked as a cafeteria cashier for 10 years.

Mrs. Bohnenstiel was a member of St. Peter's United Church of Christ, Royal Neighbors and Anchorage Senior Citizens' Club. She was preceded in death by her husband, Martin Bohnenstiel, who died in 1963, and her sister, Mrs. Grace Bridgeman, who died last week.

Among the survivors are one daughter, Mrs. Edith Ryan of Granite City; 11 grandchildren and 29 great-grandchildren.

Visitation will begin at 4 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 27, at Davis Funeral Home, 21st Street and Cleveland Boulevard, where funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 28, with the Rev. Tim Presiding. Burial will be in Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville Township.

Raymond Schrage

Raymond J. Schrage, 68, a native Granite Cityan, died at 9:10 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 24, 1984, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, following a lengthy illness. A related story appears elsewhere in today's Press-Record.

Rev. Shea suffered a stroke Feb. 20 while teaching a class at the church. He was taken to SEMC, where his medical condition was diagnosed to be the result of a brain tumor.

Later, he underwent surgery at Firms Desloge—St. Louis University Hospitals in St. Louis.

The local priest was ordained into the priesthood by Bishop James A. Griffin on March 28, 1948, at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Springfield, Ill.

He has served at many area churches, including St. Mark Catholic Church in Venice, St. Francis Xavier in Jerseyville, St. Barbara in Witt, Ill., St. Ambrose in Godfrey, St. Michael's in Stanton and SS. Peter and Paul Catholic churches in both Alton and Collinsville.

Rev. Shea, a native of Decatur, was assigned pastor of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in 1980. He served as pastor at St. Mark Catholic Church in Venice from 1987 until 1972.

Among the survivors are four brothers, Evan Patrick Shea of Hales Corner, Wis., Paul J. Shea of Greenville, Ill., Rev. Louis M. Shea of Huntsville, Utah, and Peter W. Shea of San Bernardino, Calif., and a sister, Mrs. Teresa Ann Williams of Oceanport, N.J.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Louis M. and Teresa (Evans) Shea of Decatur and a sister, Rosemary Denning of Elmhurst, Ill.

His remains will lie in state from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. Tuesday at St. Ambrose Catholic Church in Godfrey, with prayer services at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday. Mass will be celebrated by Monsignor Frank Dirksen of the Springfield Diocese at St. Ambrose at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 28.

After that time, Rev. Shea will be taken to St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church, 1900 St. Clair Ave., where he will lie in state from 4 p.m. until 9 p.m. Wednesday, with prayer services at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. Mass will be celebrated at St. Margaret Mary by Bishop Daniel Ryan of the Springfield Diocese at 11 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 29.

Burial will be in the family plot at Calvary Cemetery in Decatur, where committal services are scheduled at 3 p.m. Thursday. Mark's Mortuary, 633 E. Lorena Ave., Wood River, is in charge of arrangements.

Memorials are requested to St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church here or St. Ambrose Catholic Church in Godfrey.

Rev. Terry Shea

The Rev. Terry Shea, 63, pastor of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church, died at 12:06 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 24, 1984, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, following a lengthy illness. A related story appears elsewhere in today's Press-Record.

Diabetes Tag Days to begin Thursday

Officials expect thousands of volunteers will be shaking canisters in front of various stores and businesses in the Greater St. Louis area Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 29 through Dec. 1, to raise funds to fight diabetes, the nation's third leading cause of death by disease.

The annual fund-raising event, sponsored by the American Diabetes Association, Greater St. Louis Affiliate, highlights November as National Diabetes Month, a nationwide campaign to increase public awareness and alert Americans to the seriousness of diabetes.

A "tag," or diabetes information flyer explaining the signs and symptoms of the disease, will be given to each contributor. Officials note that last year's canister drive raised over $40,000. This year's goal is $50,000.

The ADA Greater St. Louis Affiliate offers patient education, family services, counseling, self-help programs, camps and youth activities. The American Diabetes Association also supports a nationwide, multi-million-dollar research program, committing $100 million to scientific efforts seeking the cause and cure of diabetes.

Vegetarian diets topic of meeting

Although the peak era of vegetarianism is past, many people continue to follow vegetarian diets. There are many types of vegetarian diets which can be nutritionally adequate with some knowledge of nutrition and meal planning.

Dr. Sheila Ashbrook, University of Illinois Foods and Nutrition Specialist, will provide practical information on planning nutritionally adequate diets from 10 a.m. to noon Wednesday, Nov. 28, in the Farm Bureau Board Room in the Farm Bureau Building at 900 Hillsboro in Edwardsville.

Dr. Ashbrook will cover the different types of vegetarian diets, how to plan a nutritionally balanced diet to include all essential nutrients as well as provide sample menus and recipes. Dr. Ashbrook will provide the information via a Telenet (conference phone) from her office on the campus in Urbana-Champaign. Interested persons are asked to call 1-666-8400 so handout materials can be made available. This telenet class is sponsored by the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service as part of its adult education program in Madison County.

Friday is last day to apply for food baskets

Officials at the Salvation Army, 3007 E. 23rd St., are reminding residents that Friday, Nov. 30, is the last day the organization will take applications for Christmas food and toy baskets.

Officials will take applications from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 4 p.m. each day, and residents should bring proof of residence in the city, such as their latest rent receipt or utility bill.

So far, officials report, 819 applications for the baskets have been received.

News notes

Circuit Judge P.J. O'Neill last week granted a defense motion to delay a hearing on whether a prosecution motion in the Barbara Gusewelle Boyle murder case should be sealed from public view. Her attorney, F. Lee Bailey, is involved in trial of the civil lawsuit in Texas. State's Attorney Don Weber opposed continuance, saying there is already a partial closure order in the case. Three newspapers are opposing bans on public scrutiny.

A Third Circuit Court jury last week awarded $2.75 million to Faye Zugler of Highland, $350,000 to John Burris of Peabontas and $62,000 to Regina Berry of Breese in their civil suit against Madison County. A trial lasting four and a half weeks brought out that they were hurt seriously in a June 1982 auto accident at a Helvetia Township intersection.

The county's highway department failed to maintain a stop sign. Circuit Judge Charles Chapman presided.

Bidding $941,079, L. Wolf Co. of Granite City is one of eight contractors submitting bids to create a crime laboratory in the top two floors of the Fairview Heights municipal complex. A $1 million limit on the work has been set by the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement. Apparent low bidder was Albers Co. of St. Louis at $870,000.

As far as State's Attorney-elect Richard Allen is concerned, prosecution of Supervisor of Assessments James W. Barton will remain the responsibility of a special prosecutor, Bruce D. Locher. Circuit judges earlier sought to bar Locher from further grand jury access; they speculated that Allen might claim there was no conflict in the county prosecutor handling the Barton case once Allen has succeeded State's Attorney Don Weber Dec. 3. Allen may seek a limit on Locher's expenditures.

A Madison County grand jury investigating county assessing met for 2½ hours Wednesday with Special Prosecutor Bruce D. Locher and will meet again this Wednesday and Thursday. Reconvening of the jury was ordered by Circuit Judge Dennis Cashman of Quincy, who earlier sat as a visiting judge to appoint Locher after Madison County judges excused themselves.

Through checks on their state income tax returns, Illinoisans are providing $196,000 to fight child abuse, $259,382 to help non-game wildlife and $178,183 to aid the state veterans' home.

Funeral services were conducted today in Springfield for J. Wally Ackerman, 55, chief federal judge of the Central District of Illinois. He died Friday, Nov. 23, after a month's hospital stay. As an assistant state attorney in Sangamon County, he prosecuted a celebrated case related to the state auditor office in the 1930s. While an assistant attorney general, he led an investigation into $800,000 found in shoeboxes and other containers in Secretary of State Paul Powell's hotel suite after Powell's death. Becoming state's attorney and then circuit judge, Ackerman was elevated to the federal bench in 1976.

Pay raises for legislators and state officials will be an issue as the Illinois General Assembly conducts its annual veto session tomorrow through Thursday and Dec. 11-12. Another topic will be using state education funds to bus parochial school pupils.

Victory Pentecostal announces revival

The Rev. Eddie Linhart, pastor of Victory Pentecostal Church of God, 2601 Cayuga Ave., extends an invitation to area residents to attend the forthcoming revival at the church. Services will begin Wednesday, Nov. 28, and continue through Sunday, Dec. 2, featuring the Rev. Sam Corley Jr., as guest minister.

LOCKS 27 CLOSED 3 DAYS FOR REPAIRS

Locks 27 on the Chain of Rocks Canal in Granite City is being closed to barge traffic during daylight hours today, tomorrow and Wednesday so that the nappe section of the upper gate can be set back into place.

The section was damaged by a collision with a barge recently, according to Carroll A. Blackwell, acting chief of the Operations Division of the U.S. Corps of Engineers.

BUNIONS

A bunion is actually a dislocation of a joint involving the large toe and a long bone just behind it. This causes the big toe to point toward the little toes and a bump to form on the inside of the foot behind the big toe. They may be small or very large. A bunion may develop gradually or grow quite rapidly. They may become painful, create difficulty in fitting shoes, or be cosmetically undesirable. Bunions are not caused exclusively by shoes. They are often inherited or caused by faulty foot function. Once a bunion occurs, shoes then become an aggravating factor in their development.

The best treatment for bunions, at this time, is to have them surgically corrected. A great deal of progress has been made in this area due to research and modern techniques. Most bunions can be corrected with patients able to ambulate within one or two days. Prolonged hospitalization and debilitation have become things of the past in bunion surgery. Alternative forms of treatment are available for those unable or unwilling to undergo surgery which can in most instances reduce the pain and discomfort. Whether a patient elects to have a bunion surgically corrected or treated conservatively, great strides have been made in treating this condition.

In Mt. Vernon Classic

GCHS opens season with two wins and a loss

MT. VERNON — It's been a long time since a Granite City High School basketball team won a holiday tournament. And although it didn't happen this past weekend, it may not be too far in the offing as the Warriors battled their way to a strong second-place finish here this weekend in the Sixth Annual Mt. Vernon Turkey Classic.

Granite City dropped its first game of the tourney to Carbondale 43-38 on Friday, but the Warriors managed victories over Mt. Vernon and Mattoon on Saturday to grab second place. Mt. Vernon was third with one victory while Mattoon's Green Wave went home a winless 0-3.

Warrior fans have every reason to be optimistic about their 1984-85 team. Judging by the way they played during the weekend, the Warriors are the best they've been in some years. In fact, without stretching the "its, what its and if only's" too far, it is fairly certain that they could have beaten Carbondale and in the process swept the tournament.

"Not could have... should have," lamented Warrior Coach Don Deterding. "We got a late start; played well in that third quarter and then just fell apart in the fourth quarter. We let them control the ball game in the fourth quarter," Deterding said.

Indeed, it was a different Warrior team that fourth quarter. Different because they feared losing losing the lead that they had battled to take in the third quarter.

The Warriors started the game slow — tentative as Deterding put it. Carbondale jumped out to a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter before Scott Cant put the Warriors on the board.

But once the ice was broken the Warriors put it in high gear and then in cruise control. They battled to trail by just three points by the end of the first quarter and then tied the game at 17 by halftime.

Then in the third quarter the Warriors threatened to bury the Terriers, scoring as many in that single eight-minute period as they had in the combined first two quarters. By the end of the third quarter — BAM — the were ahead 34-28.

Then the fateful fourth quarter. Putting it in a nutshell, the Warriors began what can only be described as conservative play. That, combined with Carbondale's speed and ability to convert Warrior turnovers into points, toppled the Warriors from their six-point lead.

The net result was a four-point quarter while the Terriers rallied for 15 points to steal the victory.

All in all, the Warriors really didn't play well in that first game as the statistics later bore out. Although Granite City attempted more shots (50 to Carbondale's 38) its field goals made were identical, 18. The Warriors shot a dismal 36 percent from the field while the Terriers shot 47 percent.

To make matters worse the Warriors were no better at the charity stripe, hitting two of nine for 22 percent while the Terriers hit seven of 12 for 58 percent.

But all that changed against Mt. Vernon Saturday afternoon. It was a Warrior team reminiscent of that third quarter the night before.

From the field Granite City shot 48 percent, hitting 24 of 50 shots attempted. And, it was also a different their competition. Mattoon wasn't really a very good team.

Jeff Gray had 22 points while bricker Joe contributed another eight. Cant contributed six, Jerry Paul five and Hylla and Don Stevanus four.

A 30-39 victory, the win secured second place in the tourney for the Warriors and in the process gave the Warriors a winning record, a luxury that they haven't had in some years.

AFTER THE Warriors' victory over the Green Wave, Don Deterding talked frankly about the 1984-85 War-

"Not could have... should have. We got a late start; played well in the third quarter and then just fell apart in the fourth quarter. We let them control the ball game in the fourth quarter."

rior edition and what goals he has for the team. If the Warriors are to be successful in the Southwestern Conference this year the following must happen.

"The Warriors must diversify their offense. Jeff Gray was one of the leading scorers in the Gateway East Conference last year and probably will be in the SWC this year. But, as Deterding pointed out Saturday, there must be other players who can pick up the slack in the event Gray is shut down. Joe Gray has begun to pick up some of the scoring burden, but the Warriors need at least another athlete to score consistently in double figures.

To compete successfully in the Southwestern Conference, the Warriors will need to develop their big men, particularly Don Stevanus. Stevanus made noticeable improvement between the first and third games of the Mt. Vernon Classic. During the Mattoon game he seemed to hold his ground under the basket better than he did the Carbondale game. He's handling the contact under the basket better, but he still needs to improve.

Jerry Paul. He's perhaps the best news out of the Warrior camp this season. This 6-foot 4-inch senior is a big reason the Warriors played Carbondale as tough as they did as long as they did. A heady player, he's a fine substitute for Cant, Hylla and even Stevanus. Not a big scorer — he averaged three points each of the "I'm really glad to see Joe shooting more. We want him to do that — we've got to have him doing that," Deterding said.

"There will come a time when a team will be able to shut Jeff down. If you don't have someone to help pick up the slack we're in trouble."

"We might have had the first game jitters against Carbondale and that may be the reason we started so poorly," Deterding said. "I was a little upset with the leadership after that game, and I let them know it. I think that might have sparked them on to play a little better against Mt. Vernon."

In the Warriors' final game of the tourney, against Mattoon, Granite City didn't have the high caliber game that they did against Mt. Vernon. For one, their percentages were off — 43 percent from the field and 66 percent from the stripe.

But the Warriors appear to be the kind of team that plays to the level of

Prior To Basketball Game SIUE plans grand opening for Vadalabene Center on Dec. 5

EDWARDSVILLE — Everything a basketball fan could want, and more, will be on hand Wednesday, Dec. 5, as Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville celebrates the grand opening of the Vadalabene Center.

Activities ranging from a pre-game ceremony with Senator Sam Vadalabene, and SIUE President Earl Lazerson, to the women's basketball game against St. Louis University, to the return of the men's basketball program in a contest against Lewis University, to a special halftime show by the Southern Stars Pom Pom squad, to pep bands and cheerleaders, will all be on hand to officially open one of the most complete multipurpose buildings in the country.

To make the evening even more complete, James R. Buck, SIUE director of Development and Public Affairs and acting athletic director, has announced that all fans helping the Cougars celebrate their first ever game on the SIUE campus will be admitted free of charge. Activities are scheduled to get underway at 5:15 p.m. when the SIUE women's team tips off against St. Louis University. Opening ceremonies are scheduled to begin at 7 p.m., while the home debut of the men's team is set to begin at 7:30 p.m. against the nationally-ranked Flyers of Lewis University.

Parking for the grand opening celebration, which will also be free of charge, is available in a new 300 vehicle lot directly behind the Vadalabene Center. Parking is also available in lots A and D, located near the front door of the Vadalabene Center.

Reports To Camp In March Daily signs with the Tigers

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Rick Daily, a 1982 graduate of Granite City South High School, came a step closer Friday towards realizing his childhood dream.

Before his friends, former coaches and his mother, Daily signed on the dotted line and became the latest athlete to become a member of the World Champions Detroit Tigers organization. He will report to the Tigers' farm club in Lakeland, Fla., in March and will play in the Florida State League.

"I still can't believe it yet. I have to pinch myself to be sure I'm awake. It's what I've always thought about. It's what I've always wanted," Daily said.

FOR THE 20-year-old Daily the signing with the Tigers' farm system is just another stepping stone towards his goal of actually playing in the big leagues.

After high school he attended Southeast Missouri State University in Cape Girardeau on both a football and a baseball scholarship.

Although he says baseball is his first love, he didn't do too poorly on the gridiron. A wide receiver for the Warriors, he led the metro-east area in receptions his senior year in high school.

It wasn't long before Southeast Missouri State discovered his wealth of talent. As a freshman he played both tight end and wide receiver for the Indians, not to mention place-kicker and punter.

In the spring he broke into the Indians' starting baseball lineup, playing first and third base.

But, as strong a showing as he made defensively, it was Daily's offensive night which brought him the most acclaim. Batting fifth in the Indians' lineup he just missed the coveted 400 mark, ending the season with a .393 average.

Daily's stay at SEMO, however, was a short one. After only a year at the Cape he transferred to Rend Lake Junior College in Ina where he played for another Granite City standout Kirk Champion.

Actually, the transfer from SEMO to Rend Lake worked to Daily's benefit because it was there — and later in the Alaska League — that Daily began to turn some scouts' heads.

"Rick's definitely one of our better players," Champion said. "The thing about him is that he plays every out with intensity. What little he lacks in talent he makes up for in his desire and intensity on the ball field," Champion said.

Further discussing Daily's attributes, Champion said Daily's size will also be an asset towards his further development and progress.

"Physically, he's got the strength to be a great power player. At 6-feet 1-inch, and 195 pounds, he's got the power to keep himself in the game. He's got excellent quickness and great instincts. He doesn't have great footspeed, but his ability to anticipate is remarkable, and that can make up for a lot of speed," Champion said.

CHAMPION said Daily continued to prove his ability during the summer in the Alaska League. Playing on the Kenel, Alaska, team, Daily played first and third base and hit a surprising .250 in the prestigious league. The league is a summer haven for some of the best college athletes, including those from USC and Arizona, Champion said.

"In Alaska he was competing against kids in the major colleges — the USC's, the Ariz's. Whether or not he gets noticed now is up to him. He's got to be strong early, impress some people early."

ONE PERSON who realizes the importance of "impressing the right people early" is Daily's former high school baseball coach now professional scout for the Philadelphia Phillies Conrad "Babe" Champion. It was Champion who introduced Daily to George Bradley, Detroit's director of scouting.

"He's got everything it takes to make it," Babe Champion said. "He's an excellent ball player with great ability. But most of all he's got the 'H' to play professional ball — the heart and hustle. He's a Pete Rose kind of player," the elder Champion said.

"HE'S going to need to get a few breaks — everybody does — but if he goes down there and sets them on fire he'll make it."

John Modica, Daily's baseball coach his junior and senior year at South, was ecstatic when he learned of Daily's signing.

"That's fantastic. I know he's waited for that a long, long time," Modica said.

"Rick's the kind of kid I could put anywhere and I could count on him. He's a very versatile ball player. He's got an excellent batting eye and overall good baseball sense."

Daily is the son of Gary and Carol Daily.

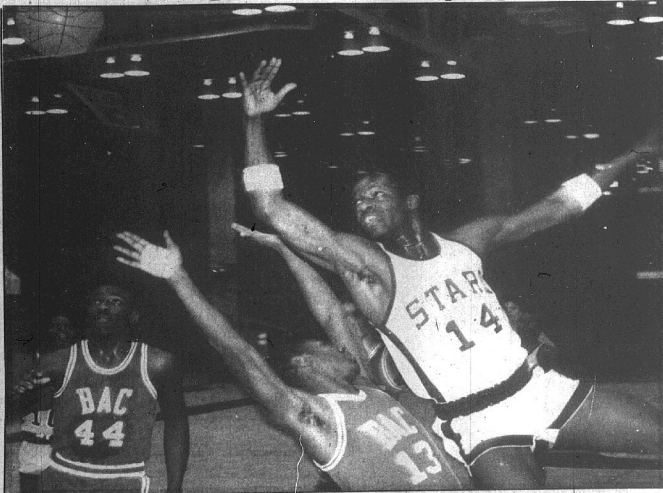

A TIGER NOW. Former Granite City High School South baseball standout Rick Daily signs his contract with the Detroit Tigers as George Bradley, director of scouting for the Tigers, looks on. Daily, 20, who played baseball and Southeast Missouri State University and more recently of Rend Lake signed with the Tigers Friday. He's slated to report to spring training in Lakeland, Fla., in mid-March.

BELLEVILLE — It's been a rocky start for Granite City Center basketball coach Terry Collins and his Stars. After dropping two games over the weekend in the Belleville Area College Dutchmen Classic, Granite City owns an 0-4 record. But Collins, in his first year at GCC, feels that it is just a matter of time before the Stars get things rolling.

"We're not playing up to our potential," Collins said after his team's 89-76 loss to BAC on Saturday night. "It's not a lack of hustle, it's just errors of execution. We're going to eliminate those errors and when we do, we're going to be good. But until that time..."

IN THEIR game against BAC's Dutchmen, the Stars never led. Plagued by turnovers and missed layups and harassed by a feisty BAC man-to-man defense, Granite City trailed 15-6 early in the first half.

Slowly, the Stars worked their way back into the contest. After the teams played evenly for five minutes, Granite City's Melvin Walker canned a pair of free throws to cut BAC's lead to nine at 25-16. Then Star center Jerry Adams hit two more from the foul stripe to make it an eight-point lead. Al Johnson fired a jumper from the left corner and Adams made two more charity tosses to pull the Stars within three points of the Dutchmen.

BAC's Keith Kiner, the tournament's most valuable player, scored from inside to make the lead five at 27-22, but Adams responded with a short jumper to again close the gap at three. Walker hit another free throw for the Stars, and the Dutchmen led by a bucket.

That was as close as Granite City would come. Kiner hit a shot from the right corner, and Kevin Kiner, who at 6-5 is an inch shorter than brother Keith, fired from the left corner to build the lead back up to eight. The half ended with BAC out in front 41-34.

THE TEAMS traded baskets throughout the second half, with BAC's lead seeing-sawing from nine to 15 points. Granite City relied primarily on the inside play of Adams to keep the Stars within striking distance, but the strike never came.

With 12:27 remaining the Stars went to a full court pressure defense, but BAC responded by burning Granite City for easy buckets from their four corner offense.

The Kiner boys did most of the damage for the Dutchmen, Keith finishing the contest with 26 points, Kevin with 25. Adams led Granite City with 26.

"Granite City played hard," said BAC coach Jay Harrington. "I knew they'd be up for us because we're sister schools."

DESPITE the win, Harrington was unhappy with his team's inability to put the game away.

"I'm a little disappointed with the way we played. We have 11 freshmen and our concentration level is not real good. Twice we had a 15-point lead, but we didn't keep doing the things we were supposed to do. We've got a lot of talent, but we just can't hold our concentration."

"I thought Terry's kids played hard. Granite City got all the loose balls. Their kids were diving on the floor. They really got after us," Harrington said.

IN THEIR opening game of the Dutchmen Classic on Friday night, the Stars lost to the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville jayvee squad 86-72.

Granite City fell behind by 10 points in that contest, but battled back to tie the score 40-40 at the half. Adams scored 20 and Johnson added 14 for the Stars. Former Madison High School standout Kenny Stanley poured in 34 points for SIUE.

Adams and Stanley also earned spots on the All-Tournament Team. Joining them on the team were Joseph Blackburn and Edward Brown from Scott Air Force Base, and Kevin Kiner from BAC. Keith Kiner received the tournament's MVP award.

ASSESSING his team after the tournament, Collins was optimistic despite the Stars' 0-4 record.

"Our defense is fair at this point," said Collins. "I know that when we get to where we execute on offense, we're going to win. We play harder than anybody else."

"I'm not going to panic or get worried. We just need to keep working. Our ball handling skills need work, and we have to get people to play together."

"Right now the only way we score is on one individual's good play. We have to get to the place where we can work smoothly together. We have to work on our team offense, and we've got to execute," Collins said.

SO FAR this season, the Stars have not executed offensively. Collins has juggled his starting lineup in hopes of finding a working combination, but as of yet, the Granite City coach has had little success.

Here's what Collins has to work with: sophomore Jerry Adams, a 6-foot 6-inch post man from Collinsville High School. This big man isn't blessed with great jumping ability, but he positions himself well for rebounds and has a nice touch inside.

Leslie Terrell is a 6-3 sophomore whom Collins calls his "most gifted athlete." A Lovejoy High School graduate, Terrell is a quick jumper, but needs work on basketball fundamentals. Of Terrell, Collins says, "He typifies our team—talented, yet deficient in some areas."

THE OTHER sophomore on the squad is Pat Linhart. "He (Linhart) knows how to score," says Collins. At 6-foot-3 Linhart is a steady rebounder with a deadly outside shot. The Granite City South product is one of Collins' most consistent performers.

Dave Weller, a 6-foot 2-inch freshman from Bethalto, "plays hard all the time," according to the Stars coach. Weller will play a wing spot for Granite City and utilize his fine outside shooting touch.

Point guard Dewayne Wright is a 5-8 freshman from McKinley High in St. Louis. Wright is very quick and is described as a "tough competitor." Wright scored 23 points in the Stars' season-opening loss to Lincolnland.

ANOTHER wingman for the Stars will be Al Johnson, a six-footer who hasn't played organized basketball since he graduated from East St. Louis Lincoln High in 1979. Johnson needs to become familiar with the team concept, but Collins is expecting some scoring punch from this athlete.

Melvin Walker, a 6-3 post man from Triad High School, is an excellent leaper and should be one of the best rebounders on the team. Walker has good quickness and can score inside.

Freshman Bill Carriger is a 6-1 wing man, coming off the bench, who must provide that all important spark for Granite City. A Triad High product, Carriger is a good shot and a hard-nosed defender.

LOVEJOY High School graduate Ron Bates is a six-foot freshman built in the Charles Barkley mold. Bates is most effective inside, but his size may force him to play away from the hoop.

At 5-8 Terron Ware is a scrappy, sharp shooter from Venice High School. Due to an ankle injury, Ware missed a month of practice and will need time to learn the Stars offense.

The Stars will shoot for their first victory on Wednesday when they travel to Southeastern Community College in Harrisburg. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

45th anniversary of comeback

By AL BARNES
of the Press-Record

Jees, how the time flies! Just to illustrate, do you realize that next March will mark the 45th anniversary of the greatest comeback ever posted by a team in the Illinois High School annual state basketball tournament. And, who was that team which recorded the greatest, the most exciting comeback in Illinois prep age history?

Why, no other than the Granite City Senior High team, the members of whom lived either in Lincoln Place in West Granite or immediately nearby. It was a team whose parents, for the most part, had just recently passed through Ellis Island. And, most carried names that were difficult to pronounce by most other fans.

It was truly a team that made up a melting pot mixture which Coach Bryon Bozarth and his assistant, Len Davis, put together back there in the school year of 1939-40.

Start with one Andy Phillip, whose real name was Pulop and whose father was of Magyar descent and was a steel worker. Andy and Dan Efimoff were of Bulgarian descent. Evon Parsaghan, Andy Hagopian, Sam Mauradian and John Markarian were Armenian. Two others were German: Ed Hoff and Eddie Mueli. George Gages was a Yugoslav and Everett Daniels, a mixture of Scotch-Irish stock, was the only modern day American as it were known then.

Now, back to the story of the greatest comeback in Illinois prep basketball history. The 1939-40 Granite City High turned the trick.

And, what's more, no other school will ever be able to do the same job.

For, you see, that 1939-40 season permitted a team to lose one game in the state eliminator playoffs and comeback and continue on to fight for the right to advance to the state tournament up at Champaign-Urbana.

Here's how it happened. Granite lost to Wood River in the regionals, but bounced back to beat W.R., 36-32, in the sectional meet.

All that season, it seemed that Granite City's prep cagers did play their best until the game's end was in sight. It was almost always a cliff-hanger. However, their first round game was, for them, a breather, as they turned back Streator, 45-31. Against Dundee, they tallied 28-28 going into the final period but won, 35-30. They dawdled behind Moline, 29 to 26, but rallied to win a thriller, 41-38.

In the championship game against Herrin, they lagged behind 16-17 but roared back to take the crown, 24-22, on a last second shot by, no not Phillip, but Parsaghan. Phillip's out-of-bounds pass-in shot cut Herrin's lead to 22-20.

With just 30 seconds remaining on the clock, there in tiny, but jam-packed Huff gym, he outjumped everyone under the Herrin goal to tie the game up with a two-pointer.

With just 10 seconds remaining, the ball went to Phillip. He feinted toward the goal and at the last split-second, passed off to Parsaghan and dunned the game-winning basket and the state championship.

Andy led all scorers with 15 points, Parsaghan totaled nine and George Gages accounted for the others.

What a comeback, eh!!!!

Laub Gets Hatrick Plus One

Warriors maul McCluer skaters 9-3

AFFTON — Granite City High club hockey player Matt Laub was a bit under the weather Saturday. But on the ice the senior was in perfect health as he scored four goals and assisted on another to give the Warriors a 9-3 win over McCluer.

Laub, along with fellow senior Dave Yurkovich, suffered a mild case of the winter flu Saturday. According to coach Garry Henson, neither was going to play much unless they proved physically fit.

"I told them before the game to go out and shoot a few pucks like they normally do, but then skate hard for a few minutes to see if they could handle it," said Henson. "Matt (Laub) said he felt alright. But Dave (Yurkovich) wasn't well off. He'd been in bed two days with the flu."

Yurkovich, who scored two of Granite City's goals in their 3-1 win over Kirkwood last week, played only about six shifts Saturday. But Laub picked up the slack as he boosted his scoring performance with a goal in the first period and three more in the third period. The 9-3 final score doesn't indicate the rough climb the Warriors had to make to beat McCluer. After an opening goal by Laub at 7:43 in the first period, McCluer came right back with a goal at 3:09 to knot the game at 1-1. Henson wasn't happy with the shaky start for the Warriors.

"I didn't think we played well at all," said Henson. "I used the word 'lethargic' in the locker room after the game. It seems we have a tendency to play like the caliber we're playing against. McCluer isn't a very talented team. Our shooting was horrendous. Our shots didn't have any zing. We weren't picking the corners."

The Warriors did manage to improve on their performance by scoring three goals in the second period. Chris Carden scored at 10:09 with an assist by Terry Wade and at 5:08 with an assist by Laub. Wade then put one in at 1:43 with an assist by Dave Young.

BUT the most impressive performances of the evening came in the third period when the Warriors were left short-handed after Billy Moore was penalized for elbowing. At 10:25, Todd Hinterser rifled a shot in to put the score at 5-1. Just 11 seconds later, Laub gave Granite City their second short-handed goal for a 6-1 lead.

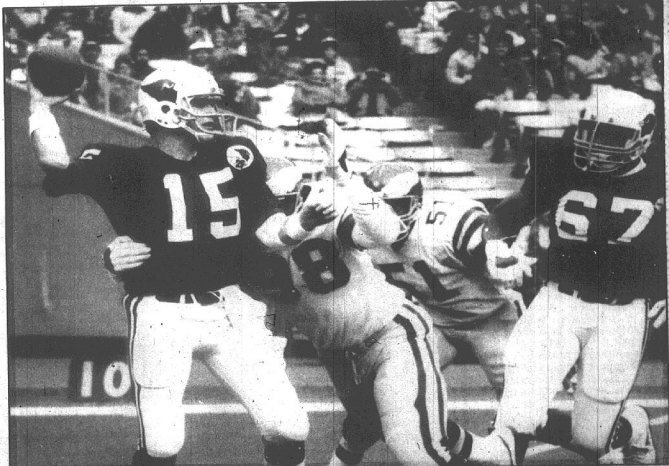

"That more or less broke the game wide open," said Henson.

McCluer managed to put two pucks past goalie Tom Schneke in the third period, while Laub added two for Granite City and Mark Donnit also scored for the Warriors. Despite the final 9-2 win, Henson still expressed concern about the team's overall play.

"A win is a win," admitted Henson. "But we skated their game, not ours. We've got to get out of that habit."

The Warriors will face their next opponent tonight when they meet Hazelwood Central in an 8:30 game at Wilson Park.

Cards Win Nail Biter

GROUNDING. St. Louis Football Cardinal quarterback Neil Lomax is penalized for intentionally grounding this pass during Sunday's National Football League game with the Philadelphia Eagles at Busch Stadium. Making the sack on the play is Eagle defensive end Greg Brown. The Cardinals won the game 17-16 in the final seconds as Neil O'Donoghue kicked a 44-yard field goal.

Hamilton signs Illinois intent

CHAMPAIGN — Lowell Hamilton, one of the nation's premier basketball players, has signed a national letter of intent to enroll at the University of Illinois next fall, announced Illinois basketball coach Lou Henson.

Hamilton, a senior at Providence St. Mel High School in the Chicago area, has been listed as the top high school prospect in the nation by several scouting publications.

Hamilton, a 6-foot-7½ center, has been a three-year starter, leading St. Mel to records of 28-4, 23-3 and 30-4. He averaged 12 points and six rebounds a game as a freshman, 16 points and 10 rebounds a game as a sophomore, and 21.5 points, nine rebounds and 6.5 blocked shots per game as a junior last season.

Horton retires after 33 years with government

Robert M. Horton Jr. will retire from U.S. government service on Friday, Nov. 30, after 33 continuous years of service.

Horton, who resides in St. Louis, is the son of Mrs. Annie M. Horton and the late Robert M. Horton Sr. of Madison. He attended Madison public schools and received a bachelor of science in education degree at Illinois State University in Normal in 1951.

Horton is employed at the U.S. Army Troop Support Command in St. Louis, where he is a GS-12 Materiel Manager in the Troop Systems Division of the Directorate of Materiel Management.

In 1970, he was awarded the Meritorious Civilian Service Award (the second highest civilian award) by General William Westmoreland, then commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, in a special ceremony.

Horton was recently honored with a retirement luncheon at the Breckenridge Concourse Hotel in Bridgeton, Mo. Several hundred people attended the event.

Q: You'll probably wonder where I've been all these years, but what, exactly, is a tax shelter? I am recently widowed, and feel I should become knowledgeable about things my husband died to take care of.

A: We applaud your question, and your quest for information. In the broadest sense, a tax shelter is an investment, frequently in real estate, oil and gas, which utilizes such tax deductions as depreciation. In the case of oil and gas depletion is used to shelter income from these investments from taxes in the early years. Quite often, shelters are structured so that when taxable income is generated, a favorable capital gains treatment is in order. Now, obviously, these sorts of shelters aren't within reach of everyone. However, there is now a shelter which can benefit everyone. It's the Individual Retirement Account, as well as the Keogh plans, which allow you to make contributions to a retirement account in which the principal is deductible and interest is taxed at a later time and usually at a lower rate. Your banker can give you all the details on IRAs and their benefits.

Watch sale to benefit McDonald House

Children in the St. Louis metropolitan area will have a chance to help the Ronald McDonald House, 4331 West Pine, St. Louis, and enjoy a new wristwatch, too. The Ronald McDonald House is a home away from home for the families of children being treated for leukemia and other life threatening diseases at St. Louis Children's Hospital and Cardinal Glennon Memorial Hospital for Children.

The wristwatch sale began Thanksgiving day and is the first national fundraiser for the Ronald McDonald House. The sale commemorates the 10 years of dedication and hard work that has been given to "The House that Love Built" in more than 60 cities across the nation, officials say. McDonald's Corporation anticipates a total of 85 Ronald McDonald Houses will be in operation by the end of 1985.

All monies raised through the sale of the watches at each of the 98 McDonald's of Metro St. Louis stores will be presented to the St. Louis Ronald McDonald House, which opened its doors to families in 1981.

The house is especially important to the families of children who must travel great distances to get cancer treatments for their children, officials note. Sometimes those treatments can last a week or longer and staying in a hotel can be very costly.

The house offers accommodations that include kitchen facilities and playrooms, as well as a chance for families to interact with other families experiencing similar circumstances. Those families who can afford it are asked to give a $5-a-night donation. Any family that cannot afford $5 can stay free of charge.

"That's why the watch sales are so important to keeping the Ronald McDonald House a vital service to these families," says John McCook, McDonald's owner and member of Ronald McDonald House Board. Ronald McDonald watches are five-function digital watches displaying the time in hours, minutes, seconds, month, and day. Ronald McDonald is on the face of the watch, which comes with a red or blue wristband. The packaging is colorful and will promote the Ronald McDonald House. Watches will sell for $2.99 each.

"We anticipated this being the largest fundraiser McDonald's of Metro St. Louis has conducted since the Burger-A-Thon a few years ago," says McCook.

"It will allow the Ronald McDonald House to achieve great visibility during the holiday season.

Most importantly, every person who purchases a watch will realize that those proceeds will directly benefit the Ronald McDonald House.

The promotion will be kicked off on national television during the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade on Thursday. McDonald's is the major sponsor of the 1984 parade and is using its role as major sponsor to involve the whole nation in helping the Ronald McDonald House. The watches go on sale the day after Thanksgiving (Nov. 23) for a two-week period.

For further information, interested persons may phone Nancy J. Stanfill at 314-863-8036.

Weddings & anniversaries

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Johnson

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Johnson to celebrate 50th anniversary

Former Granite City residents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted (Helen) Johnson who now reside at 316 Wynona St., Troy, Ill., will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary at an open house reception on Sunday, Dec. 2, at the Senior Citizen Recreation Building in Tri Township Park in Troy.

Guests will be received from 2 to 4 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were united in marriage in Granite City on Nov. 28, 1934. They both are members of St. Paul Lutheran Church in Troy.

Mr. Johnson retired from the Hot Strip Department of Granite City Steel in 1968.

The honorees are the parents of one son, Richard Johnson of Granite City, and also have one granddaughter, Julie Johnson.

Women's Division hears Robert Glik

Robert Glik, vice president of Glik's Department Stores, was the guest speaker at the Thanksgiving dinner meeting of the Women's Division of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting, held at Bill Burns Cafeteria, opened the new year for the organization and was conducted by Vice President Betty Dietrich.

Gerry Mendez served as chairman for the initial gathering with the newly elected officers in charge.

Beautification Chairman Mary Jesse reported that a location has been secured for the "Welcome to Granite City" sign and it will be erected soon.

In other business, Melanie McFarland, chairman of the annual children's Christmas party, said the holiday event will be planned for 100 children this year. The party is scheduled for Dec. 8 at the Lion's Home in Madison and each member will be contacted to sponsor a child by donating a gift wrapped article. Drivers and cookies are also needed, the chairman added.

COMMUNITY CARE SYSTEMS OPEN HOUSE ON FRIDAY

Community Care Systems, Inc., is having an open house in recognition of National Home Care Week. The public is being invited to visit Friday, Nov. 30, from 1 until 3 p.m. at the East St. Louis office, 1265 N. 88th St., Suite #3.

Lange-Hargrove

Miss Kelly Ann Hargrove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley E. Hargrove of Edwardsville, became the bride of Joseph James Lange, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Lange of Granite City, on Sept. 29.

The ceremony was performed at the Mitchell Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Harvey Humes.

Mrs. JoAnn Hargrove, a sister-in-law of the bride, served as matron of honor and David C. Lange, a brother of groom, was the best man. Bill Hargrove and Mark Lange, brothers of the bride, were seated the guests.

The bride is a 1981 graduate of Granite City High School North and is employed by CPI Corp. of St. Louis.

A 1981 graduate of Granite City High School South, the groom works

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lange at Canham Sheet Metal in Alton, and also is a drummer for the Phazer Band.

After a honeymoon trip to the Ozarks the newlywed couple is now residing in Granite City.

Bennett-Alexander

The wedding of Miss Jodi M. Alexander and Robert D. Bennett was solemnized on Oct. 6 at the Third Baptist Church, 2601 Grand Ave., with the Rev. Jim Donahue officiating at the 5 p.m. double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mrs. Patsy Alexander, 220 S. Oak, Mounds, Ill., and the late Bill Alexander. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bennett, 2028 Benton St.

Prior to the service Scott Gray sang, "Endless Love" accompanied by Sue Bauer at the organ.

Linda Boyer, a sister of the bride, was the honor attendant and Dawn Knope, the groom's niece, and Lisa Willard served as bridesmaids. Jessica Boyer, a niece of the bride, was the flower girl.

The groom chose Phil Barron as best man, David Bennett, a brother of the groom, Jeff Warren, Gary Malone, a cousin of the bride, and Kevin Buchanan, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

A reception was hosted at the American Legion Hall immediately following the ceremony, with Lydia Rohn presiding over the guest book.

A rehearsal dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Bennett at Ravanelli's Restaurant on the night before the wedding.

A 1979 graduate of Granite City High School South, the bride also graduated in 1980 from Robert Morris Medical Assistant's School and Missouri Baptist School of Nursing in 1984. She is presently working at St. Sophia Center in Florissant, Mo. The groom is an employee of

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bennett

Midwestern Drum in Venice and was graduated from Granite City High School South in 1980.

Menendez-Rackley

An out of town wedding of interest here was that of Miss Elise Menendez-Rackley of Nashville, Tenn., and Arthur Raymond Menendez of San Antonio, Texas, on Nov. 21 at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in San Antonio.

The bride is a daughter of William Wade Rackley, 904 Rackley Drive, Pulaski, Tenn., and the late Sara Belle Maddox Rackley. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edward (Carolyn) Menendez, 3265 Willow Ave.

Officiating at the 7 o'clock evening ceremony was the Rev. Charles E. Berry Jr. Mrs. Nancy Priest furnished a program of organ music during the ceremony.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by Kirby Tolt of Nashville, Tenn.

Mrs. Barbara Wright served as matron of honor and William Patrick Henry attended the groom as best man.

The bride graduated from Giles County High School in Pulaski, Tenn., in 1981 and from Draughton's Business College in Nashville in 1979. She worked for the Tennessee

State Department of Education in Nashville, for 14 years, and currently working as an executive secretary for Datapoint Computer Corp., in San Antonio.

A 1971 graduate of Granite City High School, the groom received a B.A. Degree in Biology and Psychology at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville in 1975. He also earned M.A. and Ph.D. Degrees in experimental psychology at SIUC in 1979 and 1980.

Presently he is a vision research scientist with Technology Inc., Life Science Division at the Laser Laboratories of the U.S. Air Force School of Aerospace Medicine, Brooks Air Force Base, San Antonio. Previously he was a research scientist with Departments of Psychology at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn., and at SIUC-Carbondale.

After the wedding ceremony a reception for guests was hosted at the El Tropicano Hotel in San Antonio. The newlywed couple took a wedding trip along the Texas gulf coast and now reside in San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brinker

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brinker celebrates 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brinker of Washington Park, Ill., were guests of honor at a reception given at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Edgemoor, Ill., Sunday afternoon, marking their golden wedding anniversary.

Hosting the social event were their children, Lawrence Brinker of Madison, Robert Brinker, Highland, Mrs. Mary Ann Black of Caseyville, and Michael Brinker of St. Louis.

The honorees also have 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mr. Brinker, a native of East St.

Louis, and his wife the former Marie Chagala of Czechoslovakia, were married on Nov. 28, 1934 at St. Cyril and Methodius Catholic Church in East St. Louis.

He worked as a grocery clerk at Touchettes and Malec Groceries for 35 years prior to his retirement.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Brinker are members of St. Martin of Tours Church of Washington Park. He also holds membership in St. Martin's Holy Name Society and Mrs. Brinker is a member of the Altar Society.

GOP Women honor volunteers

Volunteers who assisted at the Republican Headquarters prior to the Nov. 6 election were special guests of the Granite City Republican Women's Club at a meeting at Burns Cafeteria, last week.

Opening ceremonies included a prayer the late President Dwight Eisenhower delivered at his inauguration, followed by the business segment conducted by Vernice Walter, vice president.

She introduced a new member, Elsie Hendon, and volunteer workers, Hope Winkmeier, Rebecca Lynn Warnhoff, Susan Walton and Beatrice Harvey.

Each one was presented with a small elephant charm as a memento of their service. They said they learned a great deal from the election process and expressed an interest in learning more about how the government works.

Julie Burns brought a report on Gladys Newman, a member, who is a patient at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Members approved a recommendation they purchase a light for the Salvation Army Tree of Lights, since the club has been involved in this project for 31 years.

Mrs. Harvey won the early bird prize and Lynn Warnhoff was awarded the attendance prize.

The next Fourth Saturday Luncheon is set for Jan. 26, Mrs. Walter announced.

Third child born to McGinness family

Roger and Regina McGinness, 2751 Washington Ave., have announced the birth of their third child, a daughter, born Sept. 26 at Oliver C. Anderson Hospital.

The new arrival has been named Kelley Dawn, and she weighed 8 pounds, 1 ounce at birth. She joins a sister, Jamie Elizabeth, 8, and a brother, Roger G., 5, in the home.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hamilton of Staunton, and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John McGinness of Granite City.

Great-grandparents are Lydia Jones of Granite City and Ann Hamilton of Madison.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Druhe

Golden anniversary of Mr., Mrs. Lawrence Druhe

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Druhe, 50-year residents of Granite City, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at an open house reception given by their children.

Hosting the event were Mr. and Mrs. Henry (Ruth Ann) Gabriel, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Druhe Jr., Kenneth Druhe, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick (Carol Jean) Nesbit, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Druhe.

Mr. Druhe, formerly of Ellisville, Mo., and his wife, the former Rose Bauza of Granite City, were married on Nov. 17, 1934, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

They renewed their wedding vows at the 7:30 a.m. Mass at St. Joseph Catholic Church on Nov. 17, with the Rev. Gary Ferret officiating. Organ music that accompanied the event was provided by Mrs. Cleta Judd.

Immediately following the church service a breakfast was served to family members at Ervay's Restaurant.

Guests attending were Rev. Ferret, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ridenour, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bauza, Mrs. Fred McCollegan, Mrs. Louis Santagato, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ebling, Mr. and Mrs. James Lipchik, Mrs. Sandra Ragan and son Darren, Dominic Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Druhe, Miss Angela Druhe and 11 grandchildren.

Women of Moose announce holiday parties

The Granite Chapter of the Women of the Moose 247 held two separate meetings and discussed forthcoming holiday parties at each session conducted in the Moose Lodge Hall, this month.

Library Chapter Night was observed with 25 members present and Senior Regent Carolyn Hester in charge.

She introduced Clara Johnson who in turn presented members of the Library Committee. They donated two checks one to provide books for the Granite City Public Library and one to purchase books for the library at Mooseheart.

Members were asked to bring canned foods for the Christmas baskets to be delivered prior to Christmas day.

Mrs. Hester announced the Academy of Friendship Christmas party is scheduled for Dec. 4 and those attending are to bring a covered dish and the Past Regent Christmas party will take place on Dec. 17. Also there will be a towel social on Jan. 13 under the auspices of the Child Care committee.

After the meeting a luncheon was served by the host committee and a movie entitled Breast Diagnostics was explained by Barbara Merz from the American Cancer Society office Glen Carbon.

During the social hour games were played and prizes won by Irene Goede and Charlotte Brock.

Mrs. Hester also presided at the Academy of Friendship meeting and reviewed plans for the seasonal dinner party on Dec. 4 to begin at 6:30 p.m.

Hostesses for this event included Edna Miller and Pat Macke who served a Mexican luncheon.

Others attending were Marliou Wilkinson, Irene Goede, Anna Kuzma, Alice Skaggs, Margaret Hester, Sylvia Woods, Clara Johnson, Mildred Yotoupal, Benetta Boyd, Jennie Bilyeu, and Marian Lipscomb.

Games were played after refreshments were served.

Church club sponsors child for the holidays

The Bethany Class of Emmanuel Baptist Church finalized plans to sponsor a boy at the Baptist Children's Home in Carmi, Ill., at their November meeting. Club members will provide the boy with gifts this Christmas.

Members also made plans to set up a Christmas card post office in the church, where members may exchange Christmas cards.

Kathy Sargent, class secretary, gave the devotional entitled "Thankful for Simple Gifts."

After the business meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess, Evelyn Sadler.

Other members in attendance included: Virginia Arakaki, Marvel Walker, Mary Reed and Alma Dodson.

The Dec. 11 meeting and Christmas party will be in the home of Mrs. Sargent, 1163 Wanda Drive, Mitchell. Secret pal names will be drawn during the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Vizer announce 2nd child

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy S. Vizer, 650 Burroughs Ave. Collinsville, announce the birth of their second child, a son.

Matthew Kyle was born Saturday, Nov. 17, at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis. He weighed 7 pounds, 12 ounces.

Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Harrison (Mary) Francis of Collinsville, and the maternal grandfather is Percy Tanner of Detroit, Mich.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vizer of Granite City.

The maternal great-grandmothers are Mrs. Mimmie Tanner of Tennessee Ridge, Tenn. and Mrs. Rose Sleeter of Collinsville. Maternal step-great-grandfather is Harrison P. Francis of Collinsville. Paternal great-grandfather is Joseph Vizer of Granite City.

The mother is the former Karen Tanner. The Vizer's first child Monika Lynn is 2 years old.

Preceptor Chapter plans guest night

Preceptor Beta Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, met in the home of Barbara Hente to complete plans for an upcoming guest night.

Marilyn Lumpkins, membership chairman, discussed the guest list and invitations. Treasurer, B. J. Jones reported on profits from a recent ways and means project, and Mrs. Hente, service chairman, received donations from the members for the Alpha Center and the APA.

Christmas ornaments and catalog sale items were displayed by ways and means chairman, Carol Cathey. Linda Koenig received the traveling basket.

The program, Travel and Nature, was conducted by Mrs. Hente. Members discussed memorable trips and some of nature's masterpieces which they encountered while traveling in Hawaii, Washington, D.C., and Canada.

Laureate Chapter attends cinema

Local history is club program topic

The Five Star Club of Granite City Trust recently viewed "The Frohardt Collection" of slides depicting the history of Granite City. The 80 pictures featured many persons and places that helped to mold the community of today. Mr. Frohardt and Emerson School were the cornerstones of the local educational system. It was noted. The program was obtained from the local library.

Emylee Alford, club coordinator, reported on the recent trip to Las Vegas. Highlights of the tour included the "Jubilee Show" at the MGM, a special cocktail dinner at "The Aladdin," and several toured "Hoover Dam" and cruised "Lake Mead." The members sharing the tour were Gordon Lee Paul, Irma Green, Laverne Harrington, Irene Orick, Edna Isham, Clarence and Emma McGahan, Tom and Juanita Crawley, Wilma and Sylvia Opich, Audrey and Bernadine Weidner, Ann Herman, Mary Pogorelec, Mike and Josephine Oresovich, Frank and Ann Kosopka, Mildred Kraus, Martha LaRose, Ted and Ruby Overbeck, Gladys Pape, Viola Edwards, Dominic and Rose Scaturro, August and Myrtle Theilker, Virginia John, Delores Dorch, Margaret Painter, Marionrose Lambert and Joe Feinberg.

Dick Singer spoke on "The Name Change" of the bank, and explained that it would not effect individual accounts in any way. The officers and staff will remain the same, and the change is a part of growth and expansion.

Members joined in a sing-a-long led by Juanita Crawley, with Betty Applegate at the piano, after the meeting and Mrs. Alfred served refreshments to 60 members present.

Venice Senior Citizens mark 20th anniversary

Members of the Venice Senior Citizens Organization gathered at the Venice Madison American Legion Hall to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the group with a Thanksgiving dinner.

Mrs. Vickie Bilbey and Mrs. Sue Blattner were co-chairmen of the event and were assisted by Rose Scaturro, Velma Scroggins and members of the executive board.

The Rev. Elzeir Gehlen led all in the prayer preceding the dinner attended by 45 members and guests. During the dinner hour each member was presented with a printed history of the organization and a list of the current membership.

Special guests included Rev. Gehlen, Mrs. Margaret Lee and several members of the executive board of the American Legion and Auxiliary including, Kenneth Hinson, Blaise Maygar, Dorothy Hinson and Norma Hillmer.

President Ed Weber welcomed all present and announced that reservations are now being accepted, from the membership, for the annual Christmas dinner scheduled for Dec. 11.

The Madison Senior Citizen Band will provide the program to feature a selection of Christmas songs and hymns preceding the dinner.

The history brochure of the group noted that in the fall of 1964 a group of senior adults from the City of Venice gathered together at the Odd Fellows Hall for the purpose of organizing a recreational and social club for older adults in the community. The new club was sponsored by the Venice Homecoming Association.

Dan McGee was elected to serve as the first president. Address Brown, vice president, Stella Loftus, secretary, Luella McCoid, treasurer and Mildred Pratt, chaplain.

Shortly thereafter permission was granted by Mayor John Lee for the group to meet in the city hall club room pending a more suitable meeting place soon to be built by the Homecoming Association. By the end of the first year 31 individuals became active members and 10 years later the membership registered 95 people.

Vicky Bilbey, Ann Boelling, Ann Hartman, Florine Musick and Mildred Pratt were appointed to serve on the Bylaws Committee and after a great deal of study the form was approved by the membership. Some time later the organization became chartered with the State of Illinois.

Several senior residents of Madison and Granite City became interested and were accepted into membership. While these individuals contribute a great deal to the success and continued welfare of the organization the controlling interest has remained in the hands of elected Venice residents.

Since bus service for transportation is no longer available, many Venice residents are unable to take advantage of the activities and socialability which is provided. Car pools are arranged but cannot include all who wish to attend. There are no set dues, however, members are encouraged to contribute as they are able, according to the document.

After the Venice Recreation Center was completed in 1968, the organization moved to the new location. During the first few years they occupied their time with crafts and games. Refreshments were provided by each one in the form of a sack lunch. As funds became available a kitchen committee was formed and a light lunch prepared for the meeting sessions. Now that plans are completed to create a Day Care Unit at the recreation center, the Venice Park Board recently advised the group that the center would no longer be available as a meeting place for the club. Therefore, arrangements were made to meet at the American Legion Hall on Broadway each Tuesday from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

In the succeeding years Address Brown followed Dan McGee as president and others serving as the top officer were, Ann Harden in 1968; William Meahan, 1969 through 1971; Ann Hartman, 1972 to 1973; Vicky Bilbey, 1974 to 1977; Claud Bilbey also in 1976; Nina Payne, 1978 to 1979; John Mangaracino in 1980; Edwin Weber was elected in 1981 and is still serving at the present time.

Other current officers include, Claude Bilbey, vice president, Eleanor Weber, secretary, Diana Scherrills, treasurer, and Gertrude Carpenter, assistant treasurer.

Nora McCoid is the only charter member who remained active and honorary members include Ora Anderson, Emil Brown, Al Harden, Ann Hartman, Hazel Painter, Sybil Robb and Angie Udell.

Current membership rolls reflect 77 active members, the president noted.

Mt. Zion fall dinner attracts 60 members

The annual Thanksgiving feast for members and friends of Mount Zion General Baptist Church, 2067 Benton St., was held in the church hall during the weekend.

Approximately 60 people attended the 5 o'clock evening pot luck dinner. Ashall Warren offered the table blessing and later conducted a short program with each person telling something they were especially thankful for during the past year.

Mrs. Carolyn LeMaster led the singing of hymns and choruses with Miss Renee Sharp presiding at the piano, followed by Mr. Warren reading a poem entitled, "The Landing of the Pilgrim Fathers."

The meeting was dismissed by the Rev. Avery Morris, interim pastor. The new pastor for the church, Doctor Samuel O. Rogers of Texas, will assume his official duties at the church in January. It was announced.

Anchorage seniors to hear talk on taxes

Guest speakers from Springfield, Ill., will address members of Anchorage Senior Citizen Club from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 5, at the housing facility recreation center.

They will talk about social security and taxes relating to the retired person, according to Mrs. Augusta Lampe, club president.

After the morning program the group will meet at 1 p.m. for its regular monthly business and birthday session, and also hold an election of officers for the forthcoming year, Mrs. Lampe explained.

During the business meeting Becky Settemore will be present to take blood pressure and diabetic tests for those who are interested, the president added.

Fifty-three members attended the annual pot luck luncheon held, last week, at the recreation hall. Mrs. Lampe opened the meeting by leading all in reciting the Lord's Prayer and Pledge of Allegiance. Turkey and dressing was donated by Thomas Mortuary, the president said.

Guests for the day included Dave Morgan, Everett Morelan, Mr. and Mrs. Casimir Skubish, Phyllis Saka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lynn, and Helen Thielie a guest of Johanna Jerrels.

The floral arrangement, donated by Willis Flowers, was won by Eva Perkins.

Mrs. Lampe announced a bus route from the Granite City Township Hall to Fairview Heights each Wednesday has been finalized. Those wishing to shop in Fairview Heights may take the bus at 4 p.m. and return to the township hall at 5 p.m.

A box has been stationed in Anchorage Hall for donations of canned foods which will later be given to the Salvation Army to help fill Christmas baskets for the needy, Mrs. Lampe commented.

Plans were also finalized for the club Christmas dinner to take place on Dec. 19.

Games were played and prizes won by Reatha Bowler, Edna Ishm, Katie Collegen, Lena Humeson, Anna Lee Beger, Vi Serivner, Bessie Milton and Rose Zoti.

Phi Delta Kappa to hear district director

The Gateway East Chapter of Phi Delta Kappa plans a luncheon meeting Saturday, Dec. 1, at 12 noon at Edwardsville Junior High School, Route 157. The cost is $7 per person.

Chairman will be Owen Humphrey of Granite City and the speaker will be Dr. Leodes Arrubtha, director, District V, Phi Delta Kappa. His topic will be "School Partnership: A New Horizon for Educational Opportunity." There will be an initiation of new members.

Children's Aid Society to conduct open house

Officials at the Children's Home and Aid Society of Illinois are inviting all adoptive and foster families, adoptees, United Way supporters, previous board and auxiliary members and the general public to the agency's annual Christmas open house from 3 to 7 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 13, at the regional office, 1002 College Ave., Alton.

Plans call for a visit from Santa and attendance by members of the 11th Squadron, Air Medical Air Lift Squadron of Scott Air Force Base.

The Children's Home and Aid Society of Illinois is a United Way supported, child-welfare agency which has served children and families in Southwestern Illinois since 1883.

Local Explorers get taste of trooper training

Eighteen members of Explorer Post 10-4, sponsored by the Police Benevolent and Protective Unit 110 of Madison, visited the Department of Law Enforcement Training Academy in Springfield last week. The young men were the guests of Supt. L.A. Nargelinas, commander of the Illinois State Police.

During the two-day visit, the Explorers were put through some of the same training as new police officers, from throughout the state, are required to do. The facility was once the Illinois State Police Training Academy, but now provides training for all police departments in the state.

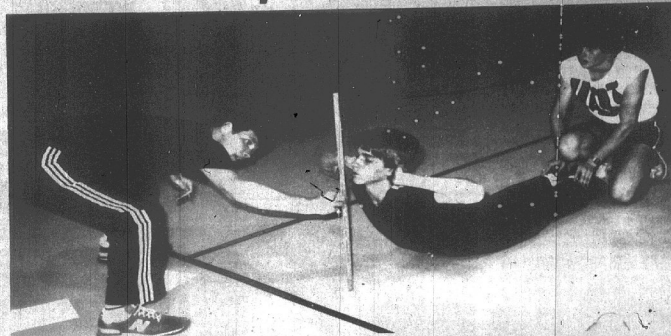

Some of the topics covered during the training sessions included police safety in the field, orientation of the organization and operation of the Illinois State Police, firearms training and other police-related topics accompanied by training films. The Explorers were also given a tour of the ISP command center in the Armory Building in Springfield.

Physical training also was stressed. The Explorers were put through the same training and agility testing required of police attending the academy. This portion of the visit was under the direction of Supt. Nargelinas and his executive assistant, Master Sgt. William Klemm.

The second day of the visit included a meeting with Governor James Thompson at the governor's mansion and tours of the capitol building and several Lincoln historical sites.

Mick Strange, founder of Post 10-4, and Gary Marsala, a former member of the Post and now an adult advisor of the Post, accompanied the Explorers on the trip to Springfield.

Way of Lights is open

The National Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows' 15th annual Way of Lights in Belleville features over 100,000 lights illuminating a mile and a half of roadway, electro-art sculptures, a life size nativity scene and a live animal corral.

A special children's puppet show, "Super Gift from Heaven," will be shown to the public in the Dr. Tom Dooley Center beginning at 6 o'clock nightly.

New this year is the Advent Room in the Dr. Tom Dooley Center which depicts Christian advent symbols.

The Shrine restaurant will feature a smorgasbord nightly from 4 to 8 p.m., Christmas Eve from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Christmas day and New Year's Day from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The Shrine gift shop will be open daily from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m., except Christmas Eve, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Christmas and New Year's Day, 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.

The Way of Lights opened Friday and continues through Jan. 6 from 5 to 10 p.m. nightly.

Robert Redford portrays a baseball pitcher in "The Natural" which is to be shown Thursday through Saturday, Nov. 29 through Dec. 1, at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

"The Natural" is based on the Bernard Malamud novel that traces a Midwestern farm boy as he battles his past to finally make it in the majors.

The movie will be shown at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 29; 7 and 9 p.m. Friday, Nov. 30, and at 7 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 1, in the first floor auditorium of the Science Building.

Tickets are $1 for SIUE students and $1.50 for non-students. Tickets can be bought at Union Station in the University Center.

Bi-State starts operating free 'Santa Special' bus

Bi-State Transit has initiated a Santa Special bus which has no farebox and will be scheduled on random selected routes throughout the system through Dec. 31.

Similar in operation to the Red Carpet bus run last spring and summer, the Santa Special is Bi-State's gift to its passengers. During the holiday season, Bi-State Transit will show its appreciation to its riders for their ongoing patronage - especially in light of ridership increases posted for the last eight of nine months.

The Santa Special will arrive at stops on its route sporting identifying side and rear cards, a bright bow, on the front with Christmas decorations inside the bus.

No parking zones are established at GC high school

Granite City alderman approved an ordinance last week which establishes no parking zones near the Granite City High School parking lot.

Under the ordinance, these locations are to be no parking zones: the intersection of the driveway entrance to the Granite City High School rear parking lot and Pehling Road, from a point beginning on the north side of the driveway and extending 50 feet in a northerly direction on Pehling Road; the intersection of the driveway to the Granite City High School rear parking lot and Pehling Road, from the southern side of the driveway, extending 25 feet in a southerly direction along Pehling Road.

The fine for each violation of the ordinance is set between $10 and $50.

Also at the meeting, aldermen approved an ordinance which establishes a no parking zone on the southeast side of Iowa Street from its intersection with 30th Street and continuing south 51 feet. The limitation will be placed on that location from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.

The fine for each violation of the law is between $10 and $50.

High rating for St. Louis University nursing school

ST. LOUIS — St. Louis University School of Nursing has been listed in the top 10 percent of U.S. nursing schools by Nursing Outlook magazine. There are 333 accredited baccalaureate programs and St. Louis U. was ranked 35th.

Polled in the survey were the deans of all such programs in the U.S. and a random sample of members of the Council of Nurse Researchers of the American Nurse Association. The schools were judged according to 10 factors which included history of the school, size of the graduate program, reputation of the dean, number of federal grants obtained and quality of the graduates.

Joan Hrubetz, Ph.D., dean, commented that "this is a real tribute to faculty and graduates and reinforces our dedication to excellence in education."

Founded in 1928, the school of nursing offers four options that lead to a bachelor of science degree in nursing, and seven graduate majors options in the areas of medical-surgical with options in oncology and cardiopulmonary nursing; gerontological nursing; nursing of children; psychiatric-mental health nursing; nursing administration and community health nursing.

Memoriams 32

IN LOVING memory of KISTA PAPADINOFF, Nov. 27, 1956. — Sadly missed by her family. 32 11 26

IN MEMORY of it weren't for the Master our hearts would break unable to mend, but tears wash away our doubts, his words comfort our hearts, his promises are our strength. We treasure moments shared, your laugh, your smile, kindness and love. We think of you today as we do each and every day and thank you Father for our life eternal. ELBERT L. LIPE, May 13, 1927-Nov. 23, 1983. — Sadly missed. Lovingly remembered by sister, Irene Borth, niece, Judy Brown. 32 11 26

IN MEMORY of DELBERT WOOD on his birthday, Nov. 26th. A million times I've needed you, a million times I've cried. If love alone would have saved you, you never would have died. In life I loved you dearly, in death I love you still. In my heart you hold a place that no one else can fill. I broke my heart to lose you, but you did not go alone. For part of me went with you, the day God called you home. God saw you getting weary, he did what he thought best. He stood beside you and whispered "come and rest." What it meant to lose you, no one will ever know. But thank God for the precious memories of the one we loved so much. May God keep you in his care till we see you and can be together again. Sadly missed by Wife, Children and Grandchildren. 32 11 26

IN LOVING memory of NATHAN (SHORTY) MILIKEN who passed away Nov. 25, 1983. You left us one year ago, but in our hearts it was just yesterday. We think of you every day. No one knows how many tears we shed but the Lord knew best and some day we hope to be with you again. Rest in peace, my love. The ones who loved you and will never forget you. — Sadly missed by Wife, Daughters, Son-in-Laws and Grandchildren. 32 11 26

IN MEMORY of DOROTHY DOOLITTLE, Nov. 27, 1958. Oh what we would give to clasp her hand, her dear kind face to see; to hear her voice, to see her smile, that meant so much to me. Her spirit has fled, her sufferings over, at the fireside she will join us no more. Sadly missed by Family and Friends. 32 11 26

IN MEMORY of CAROL CREATHOUSE, Nov. 27, 1977. Those we love remain with us, for love itself lives on, and cherished memories never fade because a loved one's gone. Those we love can never be more than a thought apart, for as long as there is memory, Carol will live on in our hearts. — Mom and Dad, Shang and Jan, Brian and Scott. 32 11 26

IN LOVING memory of ROBERT W. KINDLE, Nov. 21, 1979. — Sadly missed by the Kindle Family and All Who Loved Him. 32 11 26

IN MEMORY of our son, JIM CROUCH, whose life was so ruthlessly taken by a drunken driver one year ago today. More and more each day we miss him; Friends may think the wound is healed. But they little realize sorrow lies within our hearts concealed. — Sadly missed by Mom, Dad and Sister. 32 11 26

PTA fights young pupils' alcohol, drugs

Fighting alcohol abuse and drug abuse by children, not just teens and adolescents, is difficult, says Jeanne Miller: "It's a tender subject at a tender age." But it is a subject the Illinois PTA believes must be confronted.

She is coordinating efforts across the state for the Illinois PTA through Project SMART (Stop Marketing Alcohol on Radio and Television) and in cooperation with the National PTA's Drug Awareness Week proposed for March 3 to 9.

Project SMART is going on now throughout Illinois and the nation with active PTA support. Petitions are being circulated requesting the president and Congress to ban all advertising for alcoholic beverages on radio and television or require broadcasters to give equal time to health messages about alcohol.

The drive is called a first step. The Illinois PTA plans subsequent steps to help young people avoid the trap of alcohol abuse.

According to Jeanne Miller, the drug and alcohol problem is much more widespread than people realize. "The more I learn, the more I do," she said. "People have to understand what it's doing to us. You don't have to be a user to be a victim of it."

"Not just kids, but families and society are being negatively impacted by the destructive forces of drug and alcohol abuse. The National PTA plans to draw attention to this epidemic problem during National PTA drug week in March."

"In Illinois, we plan a series of activities, events will focus on introducing young children to decision-making skills, building their confidence, and reinforcing their self-esteem. This reinforcement from within may help them say 'no' at a critical time in their lives."

Support group for parents of teen parents is Friday

Parents Plus announces an addition to its programs for teenage parents and their families.

A support and information group for Parents of Teen Parents will meet for coffee on Friday, Nov. 30, from 10 a.m. to noon at the Weisman Room of Saint Elizabeth Medical Center.

The program will address the needs and concerns of parents of pregnant or parenting teenagers, provide a forum for question and information, followed by refreshments. More information is available from Patricia S. Miller at 877-4420.

Winter storm hazards ahead

"Winter Storm Preparedness Week" Nov. 25-Dec. 1 seeks to encourage Illinois residents to prepare for severe winter weather.

"Last winter was one of our most severe in recent years," Governor James R. Thompson said. "There were 12 severe storms, the worst occurring in the last two weeks of December. The low temperatures and the blizzard conditions made traveling during the holidays dangerous."

Based on long-term records, Illinoisans suffer through an average of five severe storms during the winter. However, since the winter of 1977, the annual average has risen to 11 storms per winter.

The Illinois State Water Survey and the National Weather Service have projected near normal precipitation for most of the 1984-85 winter. However, outlooks for precipitation do not necessarily reflect the amount of snowfall for the season, since that is dependent on the temperature of the air mass specific to each storm.

In addition, the National Weather Service expects near normal temperatures for December through January. Near normal temperatures range from a high of 30 degrees to a low of 15 degrees in southwestern Illinois.

"Few of us realize that winter storms cause more damage or disruption in the state than any other form of short-term severe weather event, including tornadoes, lightning and hail," Thompson said.

"Besides creating hazardous traveling conditions, severe winter storms interrupt vital services such as medical, fire, police, mail, power and communications."

"By taking proper precautions, Illinoisans can reduce loss of life and property, and decrease the adverse effects of winter on our energy resources and our economy."

Draganich accepts dual appointment

Louis F. Draganich, Ph.D., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Draganich of Granite City, has accepted a dual appointment as assistant professor in the Department of Surgery at the University of Chicago and assistant professor in the Pritzker Institute of Medical Engineering at the Illinois Institute of Technology.

At the University of Chicago, Dr. Draganich will establish and head a biomechanics laboratory.

The former local resident successfully defended his doctoral dissertation at the University of Illinois at Chicago earlier this month. His doctoral degree is in bioengineering and his specialized field is biomechanics.

A 1967 graduate of Granite City High School, Dr. Draganich attended Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, obtaining a bachelor's degree in biology in 1971 while also working as lead vocalist in a local rock group.

Subsequently, he returned to SIUE in 1975 to study mathematics and engineering.

He was accepted into the bioengineering Ph.D. program at the University of Illinois at Chicago in 1976 and earned his M.S. degree in bioengineering in 1979.

Dr. Draganich began working as a research assistant in the biomechanics laboratory in the Department of Orthopedics at Rush Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center, Chicago, in 1977 and with completion of his master's degree was promoted to research engineer.

In pursuit of his doctorate, he was the primary author of 11 and co-author of four research publications dealing principally with knee joint mechanics and joint replacement design.

Dr. Draganich's wife, Ann, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Vlasta Vrla of Flossmoor, Ill. She is a graduate of Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

Mrs. Draganich recently resigned her position as director of interiors with a large architectural and engineering firm in Chicago to begin her own business in commercial interior design.

The couple resides in Chicago.

Reunion planned for past 4-H'ers, leaders

University of Illinois Extension officials say it has taken almost a year to compile a list of 1,000 4-H alumni, and that list only scratches the surface as far as the number of such alumni in Madison County.

All former 4-H members, leaders and guests are being encouraged to attend a reunion dinner-dance at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 1, at the Jacob Community Hall. Those who have not been contacted may call the extension office at 1-656-8460 for more information and to make reservations.

Several extension advisers who served in the county will be attending. The band "Copenhagen" will provide the dance music, and profits will go toward the county's 4-H fund.

PUBLIC NOTICE
Notice of Filing
To the Patrons of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company.
The Illinois Bell Telephone Company hereby gives notice to the public that it has filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission, under Advice No. 4424 proposed changes in its schedules of rates, charges and regulations for telephone service in Illinois furnished under the Company's Telecommunications Services Tariff, I.C.C. No. 5. The said changes involve modifications in rates, charges, and increases in certain rates and charges for intrastate services affecting virtually all customers. This filing will result in an estimated $46,068,800 annual increase in the Company's intrastate revenues.

The modification to rate structures and increase in rates and charges involved in this filing is set forth in PART 1 - GENERAL, including: Regulations, Service Charges and Directory Service; PART 2 - EXCHANGE TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICE including: Telephone Exchange Service, Stations, Telephones and Auxiliary and Miscellaneous Equipment and Arrangements; Touch-Tone Calling Service; and Central Office Optional Line Features. This filing includes the establishment of Late Payment Charges for past due balances on customer bills. A copy of the proposed changes in schedules may be inspected by any interested party at any business office of this Company in Illinois.

All parties interested in this matter may obtain information with respect thereto either directly from the Company or by addressing the Chief Clerk of the Illinois Commerce Commission, Springfield, Illinois 62706.

Gleeb Paul Lowney

How's it going today?
 I'm suffering ennui—say something to make me laugh.
 I wear ripple-soled shoes so I can give the ants a fifty-fifty chance.
 Continue.
 He was just a shell of his former self, and if you put him to your ear, you could hear the ocean.
 Any more?
 I waited and waited and waited, and when the call didn't come, I knew it was from you.
 I'm listening.
 In certain sections of Tibet, they cremate middle-aged school teachers at birth.
 I'm still listening.
 A fellow had every other tooth missing and so did his fiancée, and when they kissed, they zippered.
 One more.
 A girl thought she was a chicken and kept ducking and trying to fly, and her parents were going to put her away, but they were poor and they needed the eggs.
 Thank you.
